Frederick Charles Somerville Townsend [362]

Rossland Golf Course

Trail Creek looking south 1898.

Trail looking south from smelter 1931.

Trail-Tadanac Hospital, Victoria Street 1932.

Obituary

Boer War Vet Dies in Trail

TRAIL—Frederick Charles Townshend of Trail, 75, died suddenly in Trail-Tadanac Hospital Thursday night. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance shortly before his death.

He is survived by a brother, believed to be in Saskatoon, and several neices and nephews. Townshend, a bachelor, was a veteran of the Boer War and a member of the Canadian Legion.

He was an outstanding tennis and football player in early days and a golf enthusiast in more recent years. He was secretary of the Rossland-Trail golf course.

Townshend, who was born in Limerick, Ireland, worked for the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. from 191[illegible] to 1918 before moving to Vancouver. He returned to the Consolidated in April, 1938 until 1943 when he was transferred to work for the Municipality of Tadanac.