The Wedding

CAREW : TOWNSHEND.—On Saturday, July 25, 1936, at St. Mark's, North Audley Street, by the Rev. Canon Brook-Jackson, assisted by the Rev. G. C. Harding, MAJOR ROBERT JOHN HENRY CAREW, of Ballinamona Park, Waterford, to DOROTHEA PETRIE, daughter of the late COLONEL G. R. TOWNSHEND, Royal Artillery, and of the late Mrs. G. R. Townshend.

MAJOR R. J. H. CAREW AND MISS TOWNSHEND

Miss Dorothea Petrie Townshend, daughter of the late Colonel G. R. and Mrs. G. R. Townshend, was married at St. Mark's, North Audley Street, to Major Robert John Henry Carew, of Ballinamona Park, Waterford.

Canon Brook Jackson, Vicar of St. Mary Abbott's, Kensington, officiated, assisted by the Rev. G. C. Harding.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Hugh Townshend, wore a dress of ivory satin, the bodice gauged down the centre and finished at the neck with a narrow edging of orange blossom. The train, cut in one with the skirt, was covered by a second long train of old family Limerick lace and tulle, hanging from the shoulders. The tulle veil was held by a Tudor-shaped wreath of orange blossom, She carried a sheaf of Madonna lilies.

She had one page, Roger Money-Kyrle and four child bridesmaids, Petrie and Mary Townshend (nieces), Anne Woodhouse (cousin of the bridegroom), and Lucy Rickman.

A reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Townshend at 1, South Audley Street, lent by Lady Ellerman, who helped to receive the guests.
