Dr Edward Richard Townsend [6C00}

Medal struck to commemorate the loss of the East Indiaman ‘Kent’
1st March 1825

Obverse: Starboard broadside view of the brig 'Cambria' (right) hove-to and starboard-quarter view of the three-masted East Indiaman 'Kent' on fire (left), two boats plying between the two vessels. Exergue: '1 . MARCH, 1825'. Reverse: Legend, 'FROM FALMOUTH, TRURO, HELSTON, PENRYN AND ST IVES'. Inscription: 'TO COMMEMORATE THE DESTRUCTION OF THE KENT EAST INDIAMAN BY FIRE, IN THE BAY OF BISCAY; AND THE RECEPTION ON BOARD THE BRIG CAMBRIA, WILLIAM COOK, MASTER, OF 547 PERSONS, THUS PROVIDENTIALLY DELIVERED FROM DEATH.' Inscription (on edge): 'IOHN MACKENNY'. 50 or 60 of these medals were struck in silver for issue to specific individuals and an unknown number in copper and white metal were sold as souvenirs.

PROTESTANT DECLARATION.

Since this document has been placed under our care, it has received the signatures which will be found beneath.

The Public of this part of the Country will recognise among them those of Gentlemen of the first rank and station in the Country—the representatives of Landed, Commercial, and Manufacturing wealth, amounting to MILLIONS, and men of the highest character and intelligence.

Such of our contemporaries elsewhere as may transcribe this important accession to the PROTESTANT DECLARATION into their columns, may rest assured that this brief description of those who compose it is in no way exaggerated. Even those who may be inclined to detract from their consequence, will not, cannot do so.

It forms no part of the system—indeed it is adverse to the wishes—of the Noblemen and Gentlemen who have originated this Document, that its progress should be accompanied with a single observation that could excite an angry feeling, or provoke an angry remark.—Breathing peace and good will itself, it would be inconsistent with its spirit and object, if, in endeavouring to promote its success or show its importance, any thing should be said or written which would tend to give offence even to the most violent of its opposers.—Adopting a similar tone, we are silent where we may speak.

The copy of the Declaration, with the signatures, now lying at this office will be forwarded to Dublin on Saturday evening. The original intention of sending it to the different towns in the County has been necessarily abandoned, so that those Gentlemen who have not yet signed, will do well to transmit to us authority for affixing their names in the course of to-morrow or the ensuing day.

Kingsborough,
Hon. Robert King, M.P.
Robert Uniacke Fitzgerald, J.P. Corkbeg,
John Michael Wrixon, Ballygiblin,
Edw. Wallis Hoare, Capt. R.N., J.P., Carrigrenan,
Robert De La Cour, Bearforest, Mallow,
Francis Sealy, Woodview, Inishannon,
James Ludlow Stawell, Kilbrittain,
Charles Stawell, Kilbrittain,
William Stawell, J.P., Kilbrack,
Edward Roche, Trabolgan,
Wm. Smith Currey, Lismore Castle,
Wm. Edward Penrose, Grange Erin,
William Beamish, Beaumont,
Charles Beamish, Beaumont,
Robert Beamish, Beaumont,
Francis Beamish, Cork,
William Crawford, Lakelands,
William Crawford, jun., Ferney,
Horace Townsend, Belgrove,
Edward R. Townsend, M.D., Cork,
Peter Maziere, Petersfield,
George Crawford, Cork,
W. K. Westropp, Sunday's-Well,
Thomas Ware, Sen. Ballinacan,
Jacob Biggs, Bandon,
Isaac Biggs, Bandon,
George Daniell, Kinsale,

Edward Morgan, Bridestown,
Matthew Heyman. M.D., Youghal,
Rev. Stephen Dixon, Vicar of Dungarvan,
Rev. Marcus Stokes, Lismore,
John Browne, Kinsale,
St. John Galwey, M.D., Mallow,
John Musgrave, Tourin, County Waterford,
Nicholas Philpot Leader, Dromagh Castle,
Charles Wm. Blakeny, Hollywell, county Roscommon,
George Roche, Youghal,
John Augustus Baldwin, Lismore,
George Browne, Kinsale,
Stawell Webb Terry, Clk. Cork,
Wade Foot, Cork,
Abraham E. Orpen, M.D., do.,
Edward Orpen, Attorney, do.,
Merion Moriarty, M.D., do.,
James Willes, M.D., do.,
William Willes, do.,
William Wise, do.,
Thomas Wise, do.,
Christopher Bull, A.B., M.D., do.,
Samuel Lane, do.,

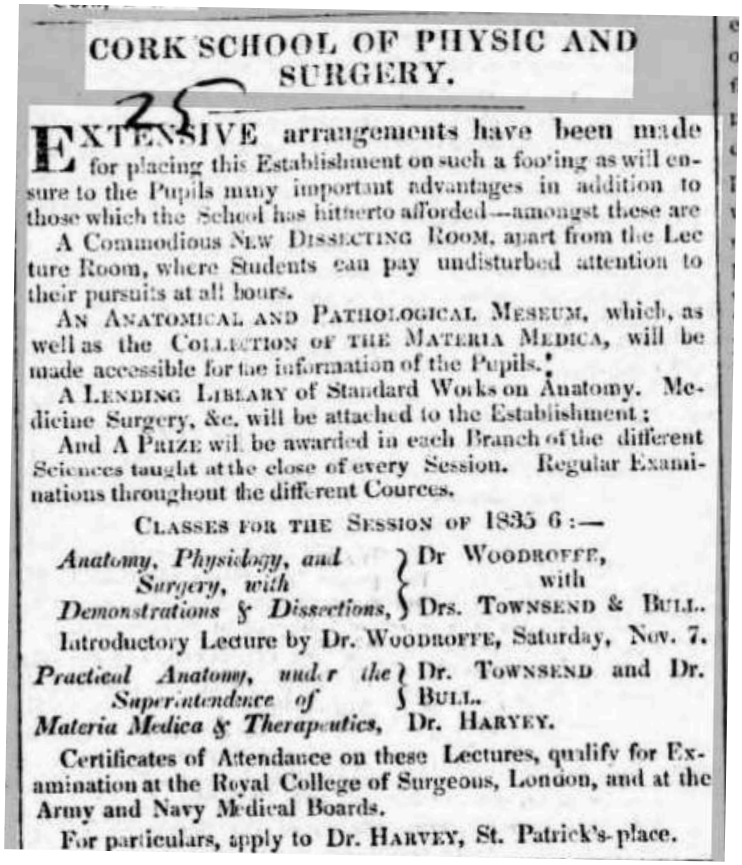

W. R. Harding, Charleville,
Eustace Stawell, Coolmain,
Henry Witham, Lismore,
John Parks, Cork,
John Swanston, Bandon,
William Murphy, M.D., Cork,
Samuel Breakwell, Grattan's Hill, county Cork,
Arthur A. Boardman, Cork,
Isaac Hewitt, do.,
W. J. Bleazby, Dyke, do.,

John Coley, Cork,	Jonathan Greene, do.,
George Osborne, do.,	John Gordon, do.,
John G. Abbott, do.,	John Gibson, do.,
Thomas Finucane, do.,	H. B. Hayes, do.,
Henry K. Feath, do.,	Thomas Shinkwin, do.,
Wm. Ellis, do.,	Samuel Marks, do.,
H. Wrixon, do.,	Ant. J. B. Stratford, do.,
Jos. M'Mullen, do.,	Rich. Dowden (Richard,) do.
P. Green Squirl, do.,	John Lander, do.,
John Reynolds, do.,	John Henry Hoskins, do.,
John Harley, do.,	Samuel King, do.,
Peter Trant, do.,	George Fennell, do.,
Austin Harley, do.,	Henry W. Maultby, do.,
Thomas Jennings, do.,	Albert Stubbeman, do.,
Richard Bagley, do.,	James Eames, do.,
John Harris, do.,	Richard Fowler, do.

A letter, which will be found in one of our columns, from the Earl of VERULAM, the Lord Lieutenant of Hertfordshire, in answer to some applications which have been made to him to induce him to join in getting up a Brunswick club in his county, expresses, we believe, an opinion very general among the more considerate of those of the Tory Aristocracy, who have hitherto opposed Catholic emancipation. The majority of those Peers who have fancied they have seen difficulties in the way of a concession of the Catholic claims (which the greatest statesmen of modern times have not been able to discover,) do not, however, desire to raise new obstacles to the settlement of the question, by establishing clubs of which the guiding principle is to be lasting and inflammatory opposition to the removal of disabilities on account of religion. None of those who have thought

The Southern Reporter and Cork Commercial Courier

29 October 1835

CORK SCHOOL OF PHYSIC AND SURGERY.

EXTENSIVE arrangements have been made for placing this Establishment on such a footing as will ensure to the Pupils many important advantages in addition to those which the School has hitherto afforded—amongst these are

A Commodious New Dissecting Room, apart from the Lecture Room, where Students can pay undisturbed attention to their pursuits at all hours.

An Anatomical and Pathological Museum, which, as well as the Collection of the Materia Medica, will be made accessible for the information of the Pupils.

A Lending Library of Standard Works on Anatomy. Medicine Surgery, &c. will be attached to the Establishment;

And A Prize will be awarded in each Branch of the different Sciences taught at the close of every Session. Regular Examinations throughout the different Cources.

Classes for the Session of 1835 6:—

Anatomy, Physiology, and Surgery, with Demonstrations & Dissections, } Dr Woodroffe, with Drs. Townsend & Bull.

Introductory Lecture by Dr. Woodroffe, Saturday, Nov. 7.

Practical Anatomy, under the Superintendence of } Dr. Townsend and Dr. Bull.

Materia Medica & Therapeutics, Dr. Harvey.

Certificates of Attendance on these Lectures, qualify for Examination at the Royal College of Surgeons, London, and at the Army and Navy Medical Boards.

For particulars, apply to Dr. Harvey, St. Patrick's-place.

Door Furniture from 13 Morrisons Quay

Found on Cuskinny Beach, Cobh by Teresa Wallace whilst metal detecting

The inscription reads Doctor Townsend 13 Morrison's Quay, Cork.